

Abstract of the Disclosure

A system and method for facilitating, coordinating and managing the operation of a competitive marketplace via the Internet. The system and method collect bids for market services from a plurality of customers, calculates a clearing piece for the market service and 5 calculates settlement information based on the clearing piece calculated and the bids collected.